PECULIAR OCCURRENCE

Clay Ferguson of Cottageville, Lewis County, Builds His Own Coffin and is Baptized in it.

A very strange happening occurred at Cottageville, Lewis county, some few weeks ago, when Clay Ferguson was baptised in his coffin, and admitted to the membership of the Christian church. Mr. Ferguson has been in ill health for some time, and being a carpenter by trade, he conceived the idea of building his own coffin. After the coffin was completed he took a strange notion into his head that he wanted to be baptised in the manner above stated. The baptism took place at his home and was witnessed by some two hundred people, many coming from miles around to witness the unusual occurrence.

—Now On Sale—GERMANS RETREAT
BEFORE THE FURY OF THE ALLIES ATTACK

London, Nov. 4.—A general German retreat along the whole Belgian front from Bruges to Thielt, was begun today, according to a report from Amsterdam, which says that heavy cannonading was heard at Ghent.

An aerial raid in force was made today by British and French aviators, who dropped bombs on the headquarters of the Germans at Thielt, at Bruges and at Roulers. The state railway works at Bruges were so badly damaged as to be of no use to the Germans, and the German general staff is declared to be moving its headquarters to Ghent to escape the continued attacks of the British armored aeroplanes. Emperor William is said to have narrowly escaped an aerial bomb attack on Thielt on Sunday. He departed just a few minutes before projectiles were dropped dangerously near the headquarters building. The Emperor is said to be establishing himself at Ghent with the general staff.

The heavy losses of the Germans in the fighting over the field to the east of the Yser and about Roulers is indicated by the presence of 5,000 wounded in the improvised hospital in Roulers alone.

REPUBLICANS CARRY PRESIDENT'S DISTRICT.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 4.—Elijah O. Hutchinson (Rep.) carried the Fourth Congressional district, which is the home district of President Wilson, defeating his opponent, Congressman Allan B. Walsh (Dem.) by 2,000.

PROGRESSIVE CONGRESSMEN MAY HOLD BALANCE OF POWER.

Washington, Nov. 4.—That neither the Democratic nor the Republican party can control the House of Representatives in the 64th Congress, but that the balance of power will be held by a group of four or five Progressives, one or two Socialists and one independent member, Kent, of California, was the statement today issued by officials of the Republican Congressional campaign committee.

REPUBLICANS GAIN 54

In the House—Sweep New York and Pennsylvania, Overrun Connecticut—Progressive Party is Virtually Wiped Out of Existence

New York, Nov. 4.—The Democratic party, through yesterday's elections, apparently retains control of both branches of Congress, although gains made by the Republicans in the lower House threaten to reduce the Democratic majority to a minimum. This is the outstanding feature of yesterday's general election, aside from which the significant development was the dwindling away of the strength of the Progressive party. Returns from every section of the country indicate that the Progressives, who cast a larger vote than the Republicans in 1912, have been absorbed in large part by that party. In almost every case there was a decisive falling off in the Progressive vote, with the conspicuous exception of California, which apparently has re-elected Hiram Johnson, its Progressive governor.

Republican gains were made in every section of the country, and leaders of that party asserted that the tariff issue has been instrumental in bringing about that result. Some of the more optimistic of the leaders asserted early today that there was a chance that the Democratic majority in the House of Representatives would be overturned, but there appeared to be small prospect of such an outcome.

Republicans Gain 54 in the House.

At an early hour today returns from the Congressional districts in many States were incomplete. Actual returns showed a Republican gain of fifty-four House seats, which would make a difference of 108 in the House majority, provided the later returns should not develop Democratic gains. That would reduce the present Democratic majority of 141 to 33. There was every indication, however, that this majority would be reduced still further. Republican triumphs not yet recorded were confidently expected in Illinois, where "Uncle Joe" Cannon, ex-Speaker, won; and other Middle Western States. On the basis of actual returns the Republicans gained ten in New York, five in Connecticut, one in Delaware, 12 in Illinois, two in Indiana, one in Maryland, three in Massachusetts, two in Michigan, two in New Hampshire, five in New Jersey, one in New Mexico, one in Ohio, six in Pennsylvania, one in Rhode Island, one in South Dakota and one in West Virginia.

Mr. Clarence L. Wood was a Cincinnati visitor yesterday.

SWEEPING VICTORIES

Washington, Nov. 4.—The Republican avalanche of yesterday, carrying with it a repudiation of the administration candidates, was lugubriously talked over today in a conference of the President, his secretary and members of the cabinet.

The air of cold depression and gloom which pervaded the conference last night was today even more accentuated.

"NIGHT, OR RUSSIA"

Casting his troubled glance over the bloody fields of Quatre Bras, near the end of the second day of the Battle of Waterloo, the "Iron Duke" raised his eyes to the lowering skies and made his famous remark, "Night or Russia."

Now, a century later the same remark can be made, but this time paraphrased to, "Night or Russia." Struggling desperately against the fierce tide of the Kaiser's armies the allies are hard beset. If defeated their hope lies in the hosts of the Czar's myrmidons pouring over the Prussian frontiers. The Slav, once the terror of Western Europe, promises to become the saviour of the Western citadels.

PUMPKIN PIE'S POTENTIALITIES

A pumpkin pie, invested with all the glorious qualities of pastry, filling and flavor, came into the commissary yesterday, with the compliments of a Houston-Hoosier suffragette. If such pumpkin pies as this could be put into general circulation, there would be no need of ballots. Mankind would be too civilized to need governments. Much of the discord and misery in the world today is due to ignorance of pumpkin pie.—Houston Post.

"GREAT MINDS" DIFFER

In one of his sermons of the Tabernacle in this city recently Evangelist Ham severely denounced modern dances and devotees of the dance. In the meeting conducted at Lexington by Evangelist Sidney Williams, Sunday night, the evangelist took for his subject "There Is No Harm In Dancing." He invited every college boy and girl and all the young people of Lexington to hear the sermon.—Bourbon News.

GRANT'S UNION SUIT

A little girl was reading a composition of her own on "Grants Work in the Civil War." She got on swimmingly until she reached Lee's surrender at Appomattox Court House. Then she told how Lee wore his sword and was handsomely attired in full uniform, "while Grant," she announced, "had on nothing but an old ragged union suit."—Chicago Ledger.

CIRCUMSTANCES

"I will never go back to the Republican party," says the Colonel. But "never" is a word that in his mouth has had various meanings according to political circumstances.—New York World.

SINGULAR INDEED

There are now 1,548,350 automobiles running around in this neutral country and the cost of living continues very high on account of the war in Europe.—Ohio State Journal.

THEY ALWAYS PAY

"Burning houses, says the news from the war in northern France and Belgium, "mark the fighting line." But, of course, whoever wins, the people pay.—Springfield Republican.

WHO GETS THE PROFITS?

If, as Judge Cary says, the war in Europe is merely a matter of dollars and cents, the participants are not getting the worth of their money.—New York World.

THEIR GLAMOUR GONE

Those "impossible" romances of Jules Verne will never be to the boy of today what they were to his daddy.—Washington Post.

JOHN D. ALWAYS WINS

Bushes soaked with kerosene light desperate night battles. Whoever loses in this war, John D. Wins.—New York World.

This country can be thankful that nothing more vital than its treasury balance is failing.

WILSON TO BE 1916 GOAT

It has been announced from Washington, almost officially, that Woodrow Wilson is a receptive candidate for a renomination. These words are modestly personified.

He is not only a receptive candidate but an absolute necessity. He has framed and dictated legislation and by the results he must stand. To think of another Democrat would be a repudiation of two years of arduous work by the President.

He has been conservative and has handled foreign situations with judgment. But from a business standpoint he has been a colossal failure. He represents business conditions. He has been the creator, the promoter of idleness. In times past every National administration has had to stand sponsor for the times. Woodrow Wilson is in that class.

It will not answer to charge the depression to the war in Europe. It was here and strongly in evidence before the cannon's roar in Belgium and France. The war has accentuated the gravity of idle shops and quiet wheels and for that Woodrow Wilson must stand.

He is a receptive candidate and an absolute certainty as the flag bearer of Democracy. And the Republicans under one flag will beat him, as the Colonel once said, to a frazzle.—Commercial Tribune.

THEN WHAT?

It became evident that the Interstate Commerce Commission could not effectively regulate the railroads. Whereupon a commission of Regulation was created to regulate the regulators. The defects in this body were later remedied by the inauguration of a Super-commission to regulate the regulators of the railroad regulators—and so on until everybody was so busy regulating everybody else that there were no railroads left to regulate.

AMERICAN CHEESE

Imported cheese will be scarce while this war lasts, but plenty of good cheese is made in this country. Americans have never consumed as much cheese as they should have, yet it is one of the cheapest and most nutritious food products available. Foreign cooks have taught New Yorkers its value, but few Americans outside this city know how extensively it is used in cooking and as a condiment.—New York Commercial.

A "SCRAP" ALL RIGHT

"Culture" which teaches that a treaty is only a "scrap of paper" is the same that converts the finest cathedral in Europe to a heap of stones and calls a concert by Ysaye a seraping of horse hair over catgut.—Investment and Industry.

HAS ARRIVED AT LAST

James Montgomery Flagg announces the arrival of an automobile that will appeal to newspaper men. It is the "Waterbury $1 motor car, eight rabbit power model."—Bluefield Daily Telegraph.

In The Shadow of The Senate.

Caesar had promised Brutus twenty bones for every stuffed bull box Brutus could land in the fall elections for him. As our story opens the two men are meeting behind the Senate building.

"Hail, Caesar!" called Brutus.

"Hail, my eye!" responded Caesar surlily. "I've lost the fall elections, and all because you didn't have the gumption to see to it that a few extra votes were crowded into the urns. I'm through with you. I know I promised to make your brother-in-law an insurance commissioner, but I take that back!" (See Tyrone Mizzie's "Graft In the Early Days!")

"Now, listen, Jule," argued Brutus. "You know it wasn't my fault. You know those dirty Progressives had the New York Ballot Urn Company install a thousand non-refillable urns just an hour before the booths opened."

"If you were any kind of a politician you wouldn't have let them do it," returned Caesar inflexibly. "You're a boob and I'm through with you!" (See Angus MacDood's "Ancient Slang.") "You're a boob, do you hear—a boob!!!"

It was then that the fatal stabbing took place.

—Louisville Times.

A WORD WITH WOMEN

Valuable Advice for Maysville Readers.

Many a woman endures with noble patience the daily misery of backache, pains about the hips, blue, nervous spells, dizziness and urinary disorders, hopeless of relief because she doesn't know what is the matter.

It is not true that every pain in the back or hips is trouble "peculiar to the sex." Often when the kidneys get congested and inflamed, such aches and pains follow.

You can tell it is kidney trouble if the secretions are dark colored, contain sediment; the passages are too frequent or scanty. Then help the weakened kidneys. Don't expect them to get well alone.

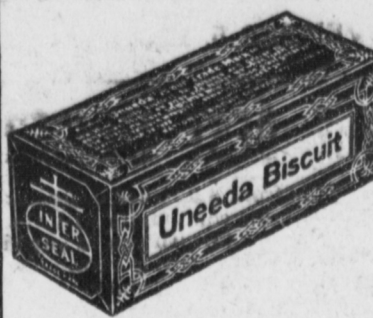

Doan's Kidney Pills have won the praise of thousands of women. They are endorsed at home—Read this Maysville woman's convincing statement:

Mrs. Dora Mefford, Maysville, Ky., says: "I had been feeling poorly for some time, before I knew that my kidneys were at fault. I was nervous and dizzy and my back and head ached. I rested poorly and mornings I was all tired out. I read in a local paper how a neighbor had been cured of kidney trouble by Doan's Kidney Pills. I used them and before long I was a great deal better. I was able to sleep well and they improved my health."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Mefford had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

New York.—Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, who was Miss Gertrude Vanderbilt, left for Europe on the Lusitania with a staff of four surgeons and 15 trained nurses to establish at her own expense a large field hospital behind the firing line in Northern France. Ten motor ambulances, a large quantity of medical supplies and clothing sufficient for 3,000 men, women and children, all purchased by Mrs. Whitney as a part of her undertaking. The field hospital is to be known as a unit in the American ambulance hospital service and it is understood that Mrs. Whitney is prepared to finance other units should they be deemed necessary. Mrs. Whitney's sister, Countess Szechenyi, formerly Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, is now aiding the wounded in Austria.

FARMER MURDERED

Body of Charles T. Royce, 65, Found Under Pile of Rails—Head Cut Off—Negroes Arrested.

Carlisle, Ky., Nov. 3.—Neighbors of a starving horse in the barn of Charles T. Royce, a farmer, 65 years old, disclosed to neighbors that Royce was missing, and started a search which ended in the discovery of Royce's body under a pile of rails.

Murder is suspected. He had not been seen for eleven days. One horse had died of starvation.

Royce's head had apparently been cut off, one arm was severed and the hand of the other arm was off.

THE TURKS.

Boston Post: Whatever happens, Germany must win or Turkey disappears from the map of Europe. That will furnish an additional reason for a good many people to hope that Germany will not win.

Detroit Free Press: Turkey's action not only spreads the conflagration, but it throws a new light on the desperate character of the conflict being waged. Berlin is not calling upon Constantinople as a Government calls upon a natural or formal ally. It is using Turkey as a dupe, as a useful tool, cold-bloodedly, ruthlessly, without any regard for Turkey's welfare.

Brooklyn Eagle: In any case, Turkey was bound to lose if Russia came out among the victors in the great struggle. She strikes in the hope that Germany may yet succeed and that her remaining territory may be untouched. Russia has the best reasons for wanting free access to the Black Sea, reasons which all civilization will recognize.

Boston Globe: The Turk cannot count for much in Europe outside the Balkans. We have read of great activities in Arabia and along the Persian and Egyptian borders. The Germans hope of course, that their ally in the Near East will stir up a holy war, capture Egypt, drive the hated Russian out of Persia and cause India to revolt. England says she is ready for the Turk. Russia is also ready for the followers of Islam.

New York Evening Post: Thus German diplomacy, which has committed many errors, has apparently added another to the list. By bringing Turkey into the fray it has made it tremendously difficult for Italy to remain quiescent.

Philadelphia Record: If Turkey's foolish entrance into the European war is followed by the annihilation of the Ottoman empire one most desirable consequence would be the opening up of Asia Minor to a higher civilization than now exists there. Ancient history reveals that this was once one of the most populous and fertile regions in the world, and there is no reason to doubt that it could become so again if relieved of the crushing burden of Turkish incompetence and misrule. Who can say that under the wise direction of European engineers and statesmen Mesopotamia may not again blossom as a rose and the glories of Bagdad and Babylon be revived?

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Cañon, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair. At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

MRS. MABEN WAS MADE WELL

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Wants Other Suffering Women To Know It.

Murfreesboro, Tenn.—"I have wanted to write to you for a long time to tell you what your wonderful remedies have done for me. I was a sufferer from female weakness and displacement and I would have such tired, worn out feelings, sick headaches and dizzy spells. Doctors did me no good so I tried the Lydia E. Pinkham Remedies—Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash. I am now well and strong and can do all my own work. I owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and want other suffering women to know about it."—Mrs. H. E. MABEN, 211 S. Spring, St., Murfreesboro, Tenn.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for nearly forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Why Lose Hope. No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Market hunters and those who hunt out of season without a license are the particular objects of this surveillance. Sunday violators and trespassers must be handled by the local authorities, and wardens are instructed to inform landowners who ask them to arrest such violators that they should go to their county authorities.

Mr. Ward said the successful work of the department last year in the fight against market hunting, followed by a dry, good breeding season, has made game birds plentiful this fall, and if the hunters co-operate with the department the sport will be unusually good.

A NEGRO CITY.

Boley, Okla., is the largest negro city in the United States. It is surrounded by some of the richest land in the world and has in its neighborhood most valuable mines of coal and wells of oil.

Boley was founded in 1904, by Thomas M. Haynes, of Texas, in the rolling prairie land on the Fort Smith and Western railroad between Deep Fork and Northern Canadian rivers, and is in the heart of a vast region capable of producing such diversified crops as corn, wheat, cotton, potatoes, alfalfa, apples, peaches, grapes, berries and the common garden vegetables.

This negro town is "making good." Today it has over eighty business concerns, an electric lighting plant, efficient waterworks, two banks, several attractive churches, a High School worth over $15,000, a Normal and Industrial School supported by the C. M. E. Church, flourishing fraternal orders, a Masonic Temple of the Oklahoma jurisdiction worth $25,000, a telephone system, several cotton gins, a Chamber of Commerce, a City Hall, a negro Mayor.

SUCH A FOOLISHNESS.

Colonel W. P. Walton makes a timely protest in the Lexington Herald against the manner in which the introduction of new speakers is overdone. Colonel Walton says he attended a speaking not long ago which was presided over by a Chairman who introduced the introducer "and when they were both through with their eloquent efforts it was almost time to go home."

Hasten to introduce the Colonel's views. Most of the introducers talk too long. Some of them wear out the patience of the crowd. And then about nine times out of ten the man who is being introduced is much better known to the audience than the introducer.—State Journal.

Vote Down Equal Suffrage Amendments And Also Defeat Women Candidates at The Polls.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Woman suffrage suffered a setback in the election yesterday, six States voting against granting the franchise to women, and women candidates undergoing defeat at the polls. In Illinois, where women gained the right to vote for all statutory offices only recently, the number of votes by that sex fell off greatly. Ohio, Missouri, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska and Nevada voted against granting votes to women. Progressive candidates, Mrs. Eva Morley Murphy, for Congress in Kansas, was defeated, running third. In Chicago, Miss Harriet Vittum and Miss Mary ...Dowell, heads of social settlements, ran for county commissioners, but made poor showings.

Captain and Mrs. C. M. Phiste, are spending a few days at Swan Creek, Ohio.

BRILLIANT EVENT

In Kansas City Society Was the Wedding of Attorney LeWright Browning of This City and Miss Meriwether Last Monday

(Kansas City Times, Nov. 3rd)

In the Independence Boulevard Christian Church Miss Juliet Meriwether and Mr. Robert Le Wright Browning of Maysville, Ky., were married at 8 o'clock last evening. The Rev. George H. Combs read the service before the altar of ferns and foliage plants, in the center of which was a cathedral cross of pink chrysanthemums. On pyramids of foliage plants at each side were white baskets of pink chrysanthemums, the handles tied with blue chiffon. Before the service, Mr. Edward Kreiser, the organist, played a medley of old-fashioned airs. For the entrance of the bride party he played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin. They walked through an aisle of white satin ribbon with blue chiffon overlace, caught up at intervals with clusters of pink chrysanthemums to the pews.

The bride entered with her father, Mr. Hunter M. Meriwether. She wore a cream faille Franciscan gown. From the high waist hung a tunic of point de Alencon lace. Over the train which fastened to a Medici collar at the back was a cape of lace. The lace, the veil and the orange blossoms, which held the veil in place, were from her mother's wedding gown. Her ornaments were an old-fashioned seed pearl necklace that was worn by her mother and her grand mother at their weddings and a circlet of diamonds, the gift of the groom. Her bouquet was of pink orchids showered with lilies of the valley.

Miss Lucy Keith Browning of Maysville, Ky., the maid of honor, wore a short length pink satin gown. Pearl beads hung at the edge of the plaited tunic. The bodice of chiffon and satin embroidered in brilliants and pearls had a sash of chiffon. She carried an arm bouquet of My Maryland roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Hattie Lee Barton and Miss Virginia Simpson, were gowned in blue and Miss Rebecca Gray and Miss Miriam Curtice in pink. Their gowns were of satin with flouncings of white Callot net, the scalloped edges finished with a binding of satin. The empire waists were of net and chiffon. From the shoulders fell scarf draperies of tulle. They carried hat baskets filled with pink roses and lilies of the valley, tied with contrasting colors of satin ribbon. The ringbearer, Master Claude Elliott Vrooman, wore a pink satin suit, and Frances Ault Vrooman, the flower girl, wore a blue satin frock and carried a basket of pink rosebuds. Mr. Browning was served by Mr. William Reese of Maysville Ky., as best man. The groomsmen were Mr. Milton Welsh, Mr. Keith Browning of Maysville, Ky.; Mr. Charles H. Woodbury and Mr. Madison Welsh. The ushers were Mr. Ashley Rule, Mr. James FitzPatrick, Mr. Harold Woodbury, Mr. Paul McWilliams, Mr. Morton Jones, Mr. Duke Parry, Mr. W. L. Bland, Mr. Errett Combs, Mr. Pryor Combs, Mr. Charles Amos Johnson and Mr. Frank Woodbury.

A reception at the home of the bride, 3616 Gladstone Boulevard, followed. They received in the drawing room, the mantel of which held an arrangement of foliage plants and pink chrysanthemums. On the table in the dining room was a handle basket having a base of pink roses and lilies of the valley. To the handle covered with blue satin was tied tiny pink wedding bells with bows of blue chiffon. In the basket was a 2-tier wedding cake enveloped in pink and blue tulle. At the corners of the table were silver candelabra holding blue tapers under pink shades. Baskets of pink chrysanthemums were used throughout the house. Palms, ferns, bampers of foliage and English boxwood trees decorated the east and south verandas. Mr. and Mrs. Meriwether were assisted by:

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sylvester, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hagerman, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Ohear, Mr. and Mrs. Porte Haven, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Stoddard, Mr. and Mrs. Gilmer Meriwether, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Yoemans, Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Vrooman, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. Buckner P. Deatherage, Mr. and Mrs. Felix L. La Force, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Parry, Mr. and Mrs. Gilson B. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Hardin Manard, Mrs. R. A. Long, Mrs. Dickinson Brown, Mrs. J. M. Curtice, Mrs. W. B. LaForce, Mrs. W. T. Owens, Miss Katherine Rule, Miss Abby Staunton Hagerman, Miss Evelyn Scavey, Miss Margaret Glover, Miss Frances Scarritt, Miss Catherine Bowman, Miss Lyle Hayes, Miss Mildred Patterson, Miss Sibyl Sweet, Miss Mildred Wagner, Miss Dorothy Deatherage, Miss Anne Peppard, Miss Theresa Murrell.

The bride's gifts to her attendants were monogrammed gold bar pins and to the flower children signet rings. Mr. Browning gave his attendant's gold cuff links. The bride, after attending Miss Bartow's School, went to Ward Belmont School, Nashville, Tenn. The bridegroom is a graduate of Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va. After a Canadian and Eastern honeymoon they will be at home in Maysville, Ky., in December.

Mr. Ben Allen left Tuesday morning for Ft. Meyers, Fla., to spend a few weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Allen.

BULL MOOSE KICKS OUT OF KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 4.—(Special)—Yesterday's election recorded the passing of the Bull Moose party in Kentucky. The Progressive party made a poor showing everywhere in the State except in Louisville, and by reason of this insignificant vote polled, ceases to be a political party within the meaning of the law in Kentucky.

CALEB POWERS SOME RUNNER.

Caleb Powers gave out a statement, saying: "I have carried all the counties in the Eleventh Congressional District over the combined opposition of the Democrats, anti-Powers Republicans, liquor men and Independents, by about 10,000 majority. It is a glorious victory and one for which I am profoundly thankful to my friends."

REPUBLICANS SWEEP INDIANAPOLIS.

The biggest surprise of the Indiana election came in Marion county, of which Indianapolis is a part. It proved a whitewash of all Democratic office-seekers and a complete victory for the Republicans. Every county office went to the Republicans, and the district gave Merrill Moores, the Republican nominee, a plurality of 5,000.

OHIO, CALIFORNIA AND WASHINGTON GO WET.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Prohibition was defeated in three States yesterday, with both sides claiming victory in a fourth and the "drys" probably winning in a fifth. California and Washington voted strongly against the dry issue. Arizona probably will go dry. Colorado is claimed by both sides. Ohio defeated a prohibition amendment. In Illinois, agents of the Anti-Saloon league asserted that they had gained a victory in electing a State Legislature composed of a majority of prohibition advocates.

With Least Exertion

To do one's best work with comfort, body and brain must be in good condition. That requires proper food—food that contains all the elements that build brain and brawn.

Grape-Nuts

is that kind of food!

Made of wheat and barley, it contains all the nutriment of these most nourishing grains, including those vital mineral salts—phosphate of potash, etc.—that are discarded in making white flour.

Long baking breaks down the starch cells of the grain and makes this food easily digestible by the most delicate stomach.

21,976 FORDS SOLD IN SEPTEMBER.

The Ford Motor Co., announces that in the month of September there were sold and delivered 21,976 Ford cars. This was a gain of 11,479 cars over September 1913. This is significant not only because it shows that the Ford production is rapidly being increased to meet the stupendous influx of orders, but also because it demonstrates that the Ford Motor Company is maintaining the 300,000 car-schedule necessary to give Ford purchasers between August 1st, 1914 and August 1st, 1915, a share of Ford profits.

We have just received a car-load of the new 1915 models, and can give you immediate delivery. There's nothing to gain by waiting, so order now and enjoy your car this fall and winter.
